

FEC Report on the 6 May 2021 Committee of Committees Meeting

Present: FEC members Casey Schofield (Chair), Katie Hauser (scribe), Xiaoshuo Hou (scribe), Jason Ohlberg (scribe), along with representatives from ATC, PC, IPPC, CAFR, FDC, CEPP, CC, and TRB.

Relations on IPPC are positive; sense is that the President appreciates the multiple perspectives that IPPC has to offer

Committee on Academic Freedom and Rights (CAFR)

In-coming chair: Dan Curley

Had productive discussions with CAFR, DOF, and other constituents regarding practices surrounding NTT faculty contracts

- FEC believes it is advisable to initiate a working group to continue this work in Fall 2021

Appointment process completed with the exception of one outstanding IPPC subcommittee appointment (to be finalized soon).

Final announcement of elections/appointments/replacements will be included in FEC's annual report

Positive collaborative relationships within FEC and with CAFR, ATC, PC, and FDC

Ongoing positive working relationship with the DOF

Concluding discussion

In anticipation of a Committee of the Whole discussion focused on the format (e.g., in-person, remote) of the faculty meeting for AY21-22, FEC solicited thoughts from attendees on the advantages
