(The additions that we propose are in to be omitted are in font.)	, and the words that would need
Full-time and shared faculty appointments to all profess made for a three-year period, the first year be Appointments to shared positions may be made for the expertise are substantially interchangeable. Shared app faculty are designed to enable the College to hire and who may wish to teach less than full-time on a permanthe College's needs such appointments are made whe fulfill the responsibilities of a single position while allowing for flexibility between them in assigning	eing a probationary one. ose whose areas of oointments to the d retain gifted professionals nent basis. In order to fulfill en two faculty members can
Faculty members in shared positions will be considerable but simultaneously as early as their sixth year of service at the College. If one position, the remaining — partner will be granted time — appointment to the previously shared peretain his or her shared position in the absence of the of partners for part-time employment on a shared constitutes a special tenure situation limited to such constitutes.	or as late as their ninth year tenured partner leaves the ed an individual,, full osition; he or she may not other partner. The tenuring appointment arrangement

We already have an instance of this in the College, but no handbook language to support it. Also, we have an opportunity for another such appointment. The overarching reason, however, is that the College must do all it can to recruit and retain the very best faculty. This gives us another tool to do this, by helping to recruit and retain faculty who have partners in the same discipline.