

FACULTY MEETING
February 2, 2018

CAPT Amendment

The Committee on Appointments, Promotions, and Tenure moves to amend the motion of December 1, 2017 by substitution with the following language and provisos:

Motion: The Committee on Appointments, Promotions and Tenure, and the Dean of the Faculty's Office moves to (1) adopt the proposal to reconfigure the structure of the Committee on Appointments, Promotion and Tenure (CAPT) and rename CAPT as COT (the Committee on Appointments and Tenure), (2) to create a separate Committee on Promotions to Associate and

RATIONALE

The caseload that CAPT is carrying is unsustainable given calendar and workload distribution restrictions. This caseload extends into the foreseeable future, which by the Dean's estimation spills over into the next five years and beyond. This motion seeks to address this problem, as well as to make modifications and address structural problems while simultaneously capturing useful opportunities. The principle changes are:

- (1) Split the duties of CAPT into a committee for tenure and a committee for promotion so that the calendar for the former can be extended, and the calendar for the latter can be pushed back earlier.
- (2) Increase the tenure review committee from six to seven members (avoid ties).
- (3) Create a promotion committee of five members.
- (4) Introduce divisional representation on faculty review committees.

Proposed Changes to the Faculty Handbook

p. 111

Endowed Chairs are appointed by the Dean of the Faculty/Vice President for Academic Affairs in consultation with ~~CAPT~~ the Committee on Prandio the Department, and, when applicable, the Program concerned. Appointment to an endowed chair is a mark of distinction conferred by the institution upon a current faculty member or, less typically, upon a faculty member expressly hired into the chair. ~~Tenure~~ Lengths may vary in accordance with donor wishes and program needs. Support for endowed chairs may enable the College to appoint individual faculty in several rotating configurations: rotation within a department or discipline or rotation across departments in a division, e.g., the sciences, the humanities, etc. Support for endowed chairs may also make possible residencies of varying lengths to allow programs at the College to supplement current offerings.

IN RANK: Preamble]

The standards by which Departments, Programs, ~~CAPT~~, the Dean of the Faculty/Vice President for Academic Affairs, the President, and the Board of Trustees arrive at their judgments regarding continuing service and advancement in rank are necessarily community based. Therefore, the judgments of departments and programs, and especially ~~CAPT~~, as the bodies elected by the faculty to represent the faculty in matters of promotion and tenure, necessarily set the standards for reappointment, tenure, and promotion at Skidmore College.

It also discusses the kinds of evidence to be used by departments and programs; ~~CAPT~~; the Associate Dean of the Faculty (faculty affairs); the Dean of the Faculty/Vice President for Academic Affairs; the President; and, ultimately, the Board of Trustees in making those judgments through the process of faculty review.

academic year begins at the start of the fall term and ends with the close of the spring term. For each academic year that a faculty member holds a full-time appointment, that person will be considered to have given a year of service. Other than those Visiting Lecturers described above, faculty members who move from "visiting" to "tenure-track" status may choose, in consultation with the Dean of the Faculty/Vice President for Academic Affairs and CAPT, to have or not to have the "visiting" years count toward tenure; the decision must be specified in the letter of appointment to the tenure-track position.

2. Procedures for Promotion

a. Professorial Ranks

i. Promotions are granted by the Board of Trustees upon the recommendation of the President, who consults as necessary with the Dean of the Faculty/Vice President for Academic Affairs, the Associate Dean of the Faculty (faculty affairs), CAPT, and the Chair of the department concerned. Except in the case of the Library faculty, CAPT's role in promotion is limited to full-time and shared tenure-track appointments to professorial ranks.

ii. Faculty may stand for promotion at their discretion. Consideration for promotion may be initiated by the Department Chair in consultation with the Associate Dean of the Faculty (faculty affairs), CAPT, and the Dean of the Faculty/Vice President for Academic Affairs. The Associate Dean of the Faculty (faculty affairs) in consultation with the Dean of the Faculty/Vice President for Academic Affairs may also decide to nominate a candidate for promotion consideration. Nomination by the Associate Dean of the Faculty (faculty affairs) for such consideration does not presuppose a successful outcome for the candidate.
