

200 and 300-Level Enhanced Courses
4th Credit Hour Options

Writing in Language and Literary Studies

Faculty member _____

Course number _____

Course title _____

Fall _____ Spring _____ Year _____

Please check the options that you are using to fulfill the 4th credit hour in your course this semester. Indicate to the right of the option the approximate number of hours per semester (for a total of 45 hours, including students' preparation time) that you will allot to each option.

Students will devote 3 hours each week in addition to class time activities designed to develop their skills as writers of literary analyses. This module will build upon and expand their experience of writing in the course by allowing students additional time for drafting and revising and providing opportunities for peer critiques, individual conferences with the instructor, and students to hone their strategies of argumentation and analysis, to assess their writing in the context of professional literary criticism, and to attend not only to content but also to style and voice in their critical papers

_____ Workshops _____ hours/semester

_____ Individual writing exercises _____ hours/semester

_____ Peer group sessions _____ hours/semester

_____ Additional writing assignments _____ hours/semester

_____ Regularly scheduled student/instructor conferences _____ hours/semester

_____ Student/student or student/faculty email critiques _____ hours/semester

_____ Students' attendance at readings, lectures by visiting writers/scholars _____ hours/semester

_____ Additional reading assignments or library work _____ hours/semester

_____ Other (please explain) _____ hours/semester

Please return this form to the English Department.